

INVESTING IN A WORLD OF POSSIBILITIES

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
CARBONDALE'S EXPLORING CAREERS IN ACCOUNTING AND BUSINESS PROGRAM
INTRODUCES HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS TO
THE WIDE ARRAY OF OPPORTUNITIES OPEN TO THEM IN THE WORLD OF BUSINESS.

The College of Business welcomes underrepresented populations to the Southern Illinois University campus for a weeklong residency program each summer.

Take advantage of unique learning experiences, skills development and real-world university and corporate networking in one life-changing week!

Discover and explore the multitude of career possibilities in Accounting and Business

AND THAT'S NOT ALL!

Participants will also enjoy a trip to St. Louis, touring successful businesses and connecting with business professionals.

WHEN AND WHERE?

The Exploring Careers in Accounting and Business Program takes place July 26-August 2, 2014, on the Southern Illinois University Carbondale campus. Participants will stay in residence halls, enjoy all meals and use student facilities while in Carbondale.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

If you are from an underrepresented population group, have completed your freshman year in high school and want to learn how to turn your potential into the opportunity for success, you are welcome at our Exploring Careers in Accounting and Business program.

SIU's College of Business covers all of the costs for learning materials, housing and food for participants.

Funding is provided by Emerson, KPMG LLP and Deloitte LLP with support from a Reflective Responsive University Initiative.

Apply now and begin building the future you dream of!

Applications are due June 5, 2014.
